Update from Elder Yard Trustees

The most recent trustee meeting was held on 24th April 2024.

The following agenda items were discussed:

- The January minutes were approved.
- Ann summarised the success of the coffee mornings and re-gifting stall. Unsold items from the re-gifting stall were taken across to the Oxfam Shop. We will now hold the coffee mornings on a monthly basis. Most dates are the last Saturday of the month, but this is not always feasible. Andrew has had an excellent banner for the coffee mornings printed, and it will be put up outside when they are taking place. See the “Coffee mornings” section of this newsletter for the dates.

- The noticeboard outside has been mended and is looking good.
- The chapel Spring Clean went well. Thank you to those who were able to help.
- Sarah prepared a draft safeguarding policy document. Martin reviewed it and made changes he felt were helpful. Sarah will inform trustees of any local safeguarding training and they can book on independently as they see fit.
- Sarah passed on information to trustees about free one-off training events for Chesterfield area community group members, being run by Chesterfield Borough Council. This includes, recruiting and training volunteers, health and safety, marketing and fund raising and grants. Two trustees, so far, have booked on to the volunteers, marketing and funding training sessions.
- Finance was discussed and the accounts were thoroughly reviewed. The chapel has spent several thousands of pounds on vital internal upgrading and maintenance and on maintenance outside. Although we have money in reserve, we ideally need to increase income to the chapel, so that we can continue maintaining the building and meeting the running costs. The heating for the chapel costs more than ideal, but this is a reflection of the general rise in the cost of utilities.
- Finance – the Chapel has been awarded another generous donation from the Unity Trust and this will help with the cost of the redecoration of areas of building.
- Ann explained correspondence she has dealt with.
- Ann has been unable to arrange a leader for the July service and so there will not be a service in that month.
- The Heritage Open Days will be on Friday 6th and Saturday 7th of September when the chapel will be open from 10am to 4pm for members of the public, and refreshments will be served. The chapel will be open for the Sunday service on 8th September at 3pm.
- Mansfield Unitarian Chapel has invited Edler Yard congregation members to attend their service and programme of events on Sunday 19th May. See the relevant section in the newsletter.
- The next trustee meeting will be held on Weds 24th July at 2pm

If you have anything you wish to raise with the trustees for possible discussion at the next meeting, please let Ann Shutt know by emailing tillypretoria2@btinternet.com

Maintenance update

The refurbished noticeboard is up and looks great. The two new Yew Trees are ready to plant thanks to Janet and Sarah. Martin has treated and jet-washed the paths outside – many thanks to him. We are collecting quotes for the redecoration of the downstairs rooms and I hope this work will happen by the end of June. There are plenty of little painting and garden jobs to be done which I will tackle as the weather improves. If you want to help just tell me!
(Andrew)

A Stunning Change in Use

Martin's son has sent in a photograph of how he has used some old slates from the roof of the Chapel, rather than they remain unused. They look stunning, and this photo highlights the size of the slates.

Did you know?

In May

1887, May. The very large Firth's Works at Whittington closed. Established in 1856, they had made puddled steel and various rolled products. Their products included telegraph poles and some were sold internationally, including steel railway carriages for use in India.

In June

1777, June. The Chesterfield Canal was completed and the first vessel was brought to the town.

1914, 11 June. Chesterfield Parish Church was closed to visitors because of violent protests by suffragettes burning churches in the country.

Elder Yard Chapel had our own suffragist (non-violent), Emma Miller (nee Holmes), born 26 June 1839, daughter of Daniel Holmes (Unitarian cordwainer) and his wife Martha Hollingworth. Following in the political activism of her father, Emma eventually moved to Australia and is well known there as a pioneer trades union activist, women's rights campaigner and is viewed by many as the founder of the Queensland Labour Party. She died in 1917.

- The Cinnamon Trust

This national charity provides peace of mind and practical support to dog owners who are elderly or terminally ill, so that they can take on a new dog or maintain their care of their existing dog. The special relationship between owner and pet adds incalculably to the quality of life for both. For example, if necessary, a volunteer can regularly walk a dog, and provision can be made for the continuing care and love of the dog when the owner passes away. For more information see their website <https://cinnamon.org.uk> or telephone 01736 757900.

A Pause for Thought

“Shall I compare thee to a summer’s day?
Thou art more lovely and more temperate:
Rough winds do shake the darling buds of May,
And summer’s lease hath all too short a date:”

(Extract from Sonnet 18 by William Shakespeare, 1564 –1616. English playwright & poet)

“June is the best month to remind yourself that you are enough. The sun shines for you, birds sing for you, and flowers bloom for you. So don’t forget to smile for you.” (Our MindfulLife.com)

“Life is mainly froth and bubble
Two things stand like stone.
Kindness in another’s trouble,
Courage in your own.”

(Adam Lindsay Gordon. Australian poet and politician, 1833 -1870).
